

Please consider becoming a Sponsor of the Milford High School
Theatre Department

Each year, the Milford High School Theatre Department strives not only to share the theatre arts with its students, but also to present outstanding, entertaining productions for the public to enjoy. From royalties to equipment to costumes and set expenses, putting together a production takes a lot of time, talent and resources. And this year's productions are no different! That's why we are asking you for your support. Your help in presenting our season will be greatly appreciated!
